TIGER

FOREWORD

With the passage of years, you may look back upon this school year as the time when the darkness of ignorance suddenly became bright with the gleam of knowledge.

The world of Savannah State College is a never-ending panorama of people and events. To the new arrival on campus, the most striking feature which hits him is an enthusiasm, a pulsating feeling of growth and movement. Never-ending activities and a wealth of things to do can swallow up the unaware student until he forgets what school is really for.

To preserve a record of these moments and the countless other experiences of you and your classmates, this annual strives to capture the "eyes" and "mind" of the scholarship, the leadership, the activities, and the character of SAVANNAH STATE COLLEGE.

Dedication

To a man who lives silently before us but has set a wonderful and wholesome example to all who have been under his leadership . . . . To one whose qualities of friendliness, loyalty, and sportsmanship have won a place of great respect, deep admiration, and warm affection among both the student body and the faculty. With deep appreciation for his service to us as a teacher, coach, friend and spiritual, cultural, and academic leader, we dedicate this, the 1964 Tiger, to Mr. Theodore Wright.

President's Message

President's Message

1964 Annual

MESSAGE TO THE CLASS OF 1964

Graduation marks an important mile-stone in the shaping of your lives. A part of your formal training has now been completed, but your opportunity for learning goes on. It is my hope that you will never cease to be engaged in the pursuit of knowledge and in the expanding of your intellectual, spiritual, and cultural horizons.

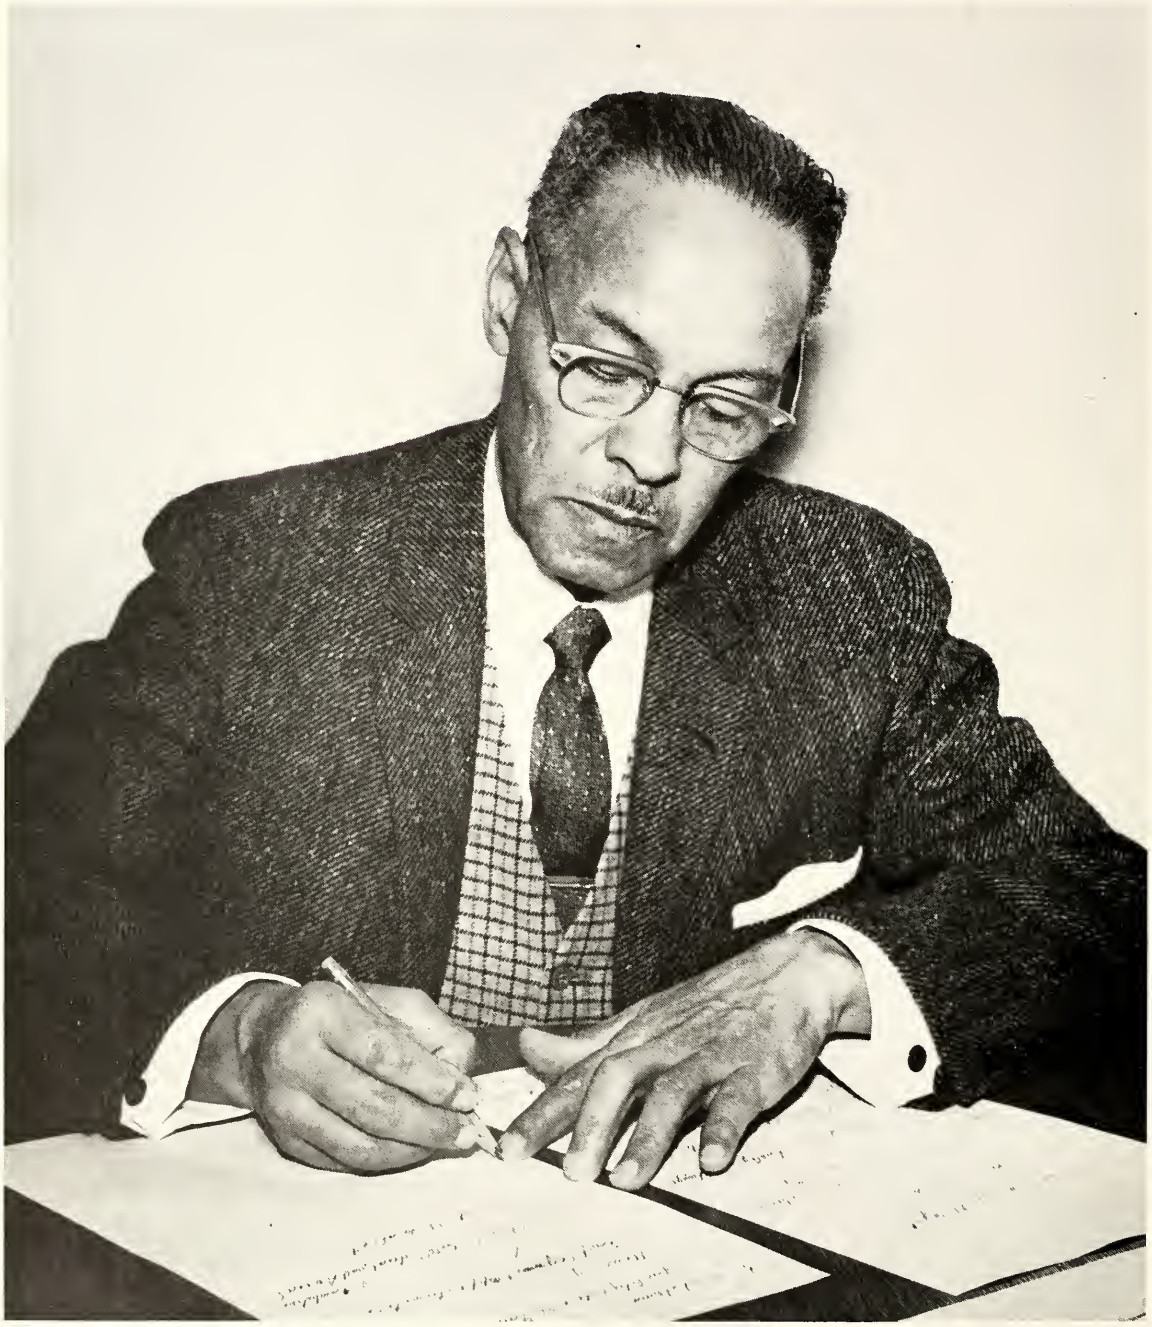
As the years go by you will cherish more and more the record of events and friends which are compiled in this book, gathered with painstaking care and arranged with loyal devotion by the staff and advisors of the "Tiger". It will provide for you a permanent record of the part played in the history of Savannah State College by you and your associates of college years. May this issue of the "Tiger" serve always as a means of keeping alive in your hearts and minds your love and loyalty for your Alma Mater. May it also serve as a reminder of your obligations as educated persons to do your share in providing the leadership so urgently needed in facing the problems which confront us in the rapidly changing world.

Wherever you go always remember that you carry the best wishes of your Alma Mater for your happiness and success.

Howard Jordan, Jr.

President

Officers of Administration



MR. T. C. MEYERS, Dean of Faculty
A. B., M. A.

Dean T. C. Meyers is a familiar figure not only at all campus functions but in civic, religious, and cultural circles as well. He has served as acting President for the institution and has taught in the Humanities. His interests range over all fields of knowledge and the persons who work in them.

MR. BEN INGERSOLL, Registrar
A. B., M. A.

Registrar of the college, Mr. Ingersoll has served quietly and efficiently through the years of change and growth at SSC. His analysis of present records and predictions of future needs based on his studies have proved of inestimable help to administration and faculty.

MR. ELONNIE J. JOSEY, Librarian
A. B., M. A., M. S. L. S.

As Librarian of SSC, Mr. Elonnie J. Josey has a vital part in the development of knowledge of students as well as maintaining intellectual growth and academic achievements. Mr. Josey is active in religious organizations and civic services throughout the area.

MR. WILTON C. SCOTT, Director of Public Relations
B.A., M.A., C.A.S.

As Director of Public Relations, Mr. Wilton Scott has been a guiding force in the growth of SSC. He does much to attract the interest of the community and the states as well. With his assistance and leadership, we can look forward to continued years of growth and achievement.

MR. PRINCE JACKSON, Alumni Secretary
B. S., M. S.

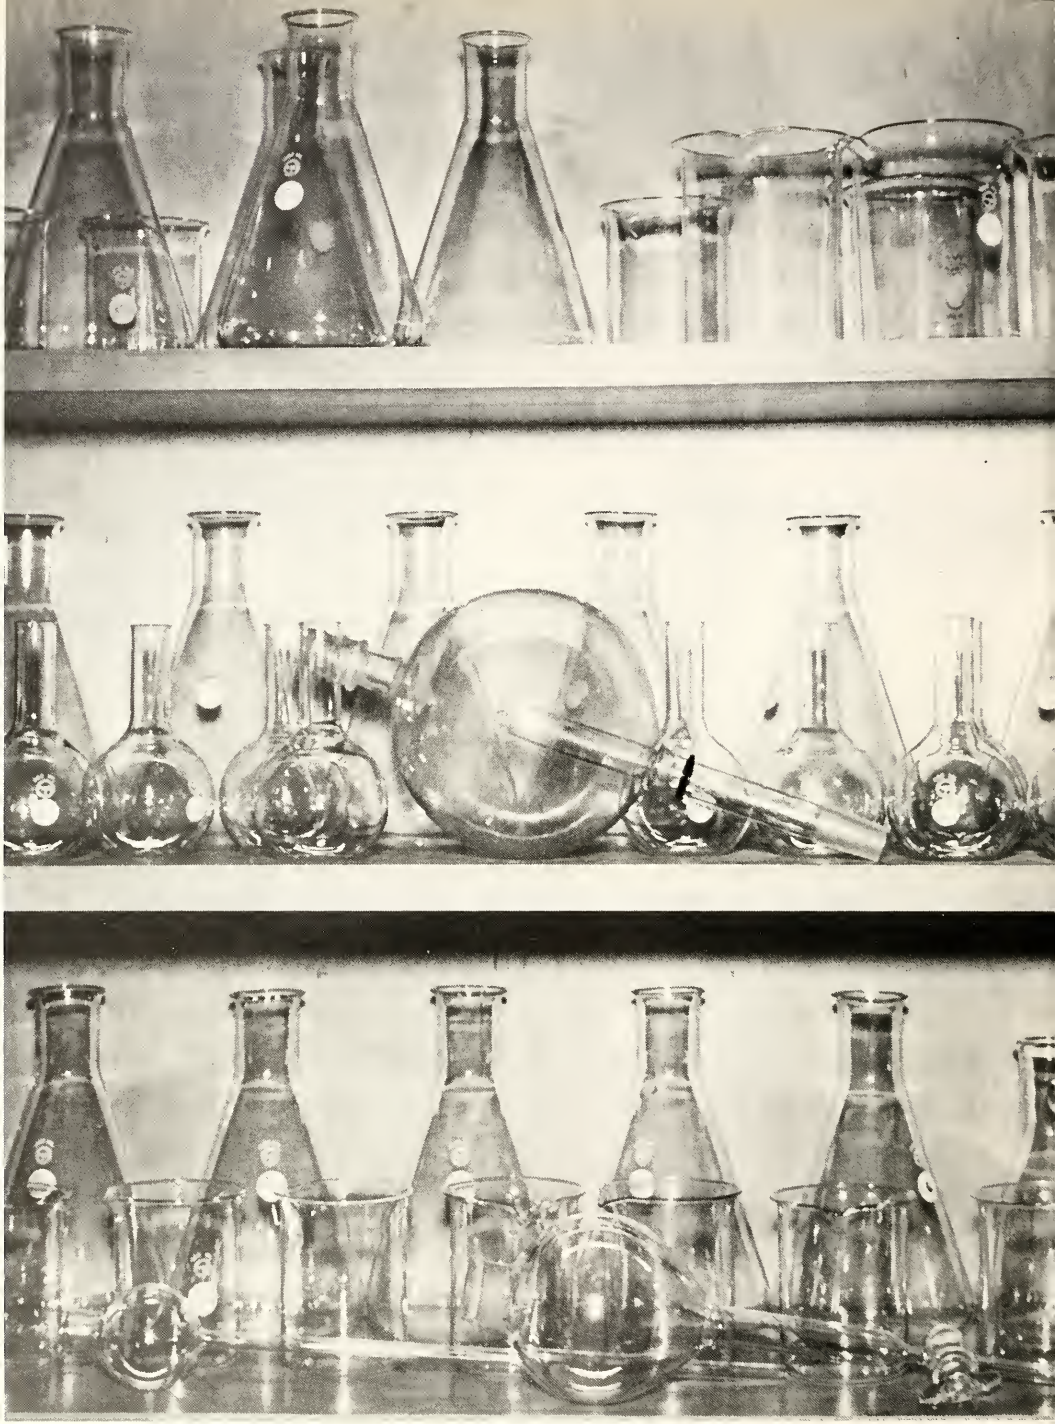
Mr. Prince Jackson does much to keep the former students of SSC up to date on current affairs at SSC. He also serves as an instructor of Mathematics and Physics.

MR. N. R. FREEMAN, Chairman Student Personnel
B. S., M. A.

Mr. Freeman is another former Savannah-Stater serving his alma mater. He directs phases of student life in addition to his duties as dean of men. He has also served as an instructor in Social Science. Mr. Freeman is active in many cultural and civic activities.

MR. WESLEY L. JOHNSON JR., Comptroller
A. B., M. A.

With the handling of all financial matters in the business office and with a heavily increased day —and evening—college enrollment, the role of the business manager has grown to large proportions. In concentrating the budget matters, custodians, equipment care, cafeteria and the like, the business office staff has correspondingly grown.



. . . . Science, gateway to progress and knowledge.

Dr. B. T. Griffith, Department Chairman and Professor, is busy testing the PH value of a solution for a class in Physiology.

Mr. J. H. Wortham, Assistant Professor, demonstrates to a class in General Biology the correct procedure for dissecting the heart of a calf.

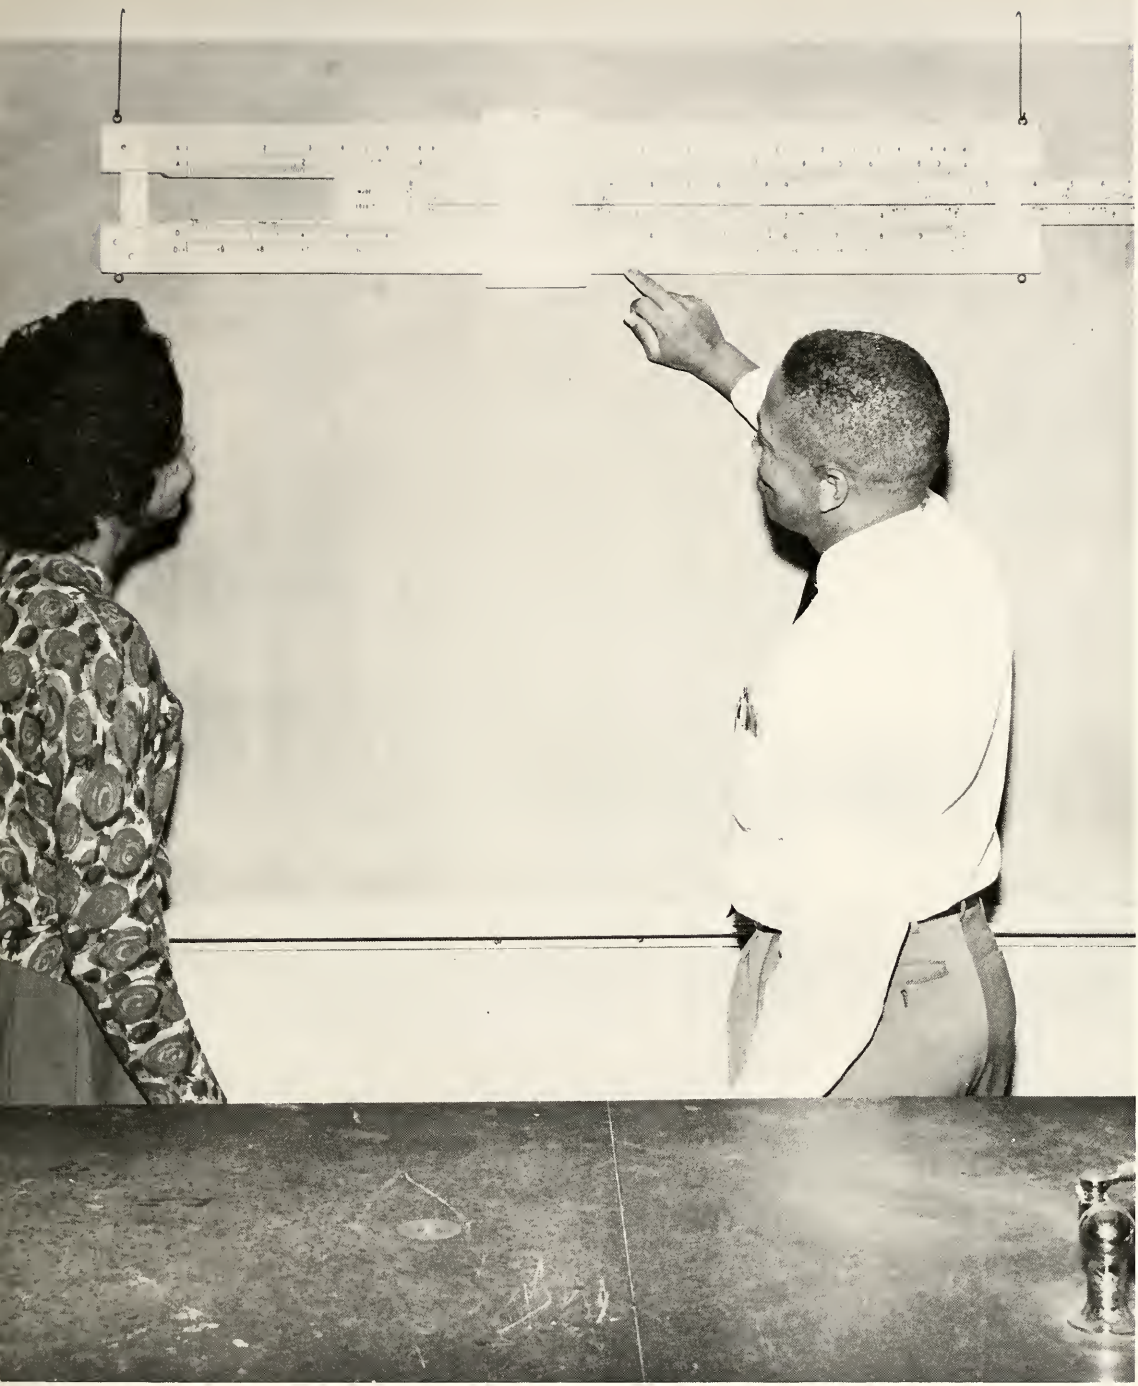
Mrs. Margaret C. Robinson, an instructor, and two students of Botany study the veins of a plant (veination) which help determine whether a plant is a dicot or monocot.

Dr. Willie G. Tucker, Professor, adjusts a spectograph spectronic "20" in preparation for an important reading to a class in chemistry.

Dr. Charles Pratt, Department Chairman and Professor, and student Freda Brewton, a Senior Chemistry major, observe the reactions of a previously-run experiment in Organic Chemistry.

Mr. Marion D. Mendenhall, instructor, sets the range on a gas chromatograph before running an important test.

Mr. C. Vernon Clay, Associate Professor, attempts to tabulate the readings on the Spectrophotometer Recorder for necessary data upon completion of a test.

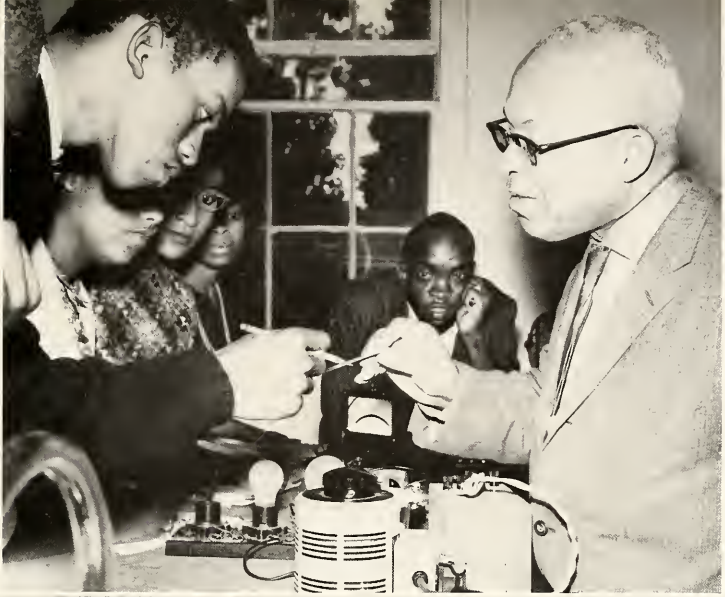


Mathematics and Engineering are basic in many professional and vocational fields everywhere. Architects, Engineers, Mathematicians, and Physicists of tomorrow are here preparing for future careers.

Mr. John B. Clemmons, Department Chairman and Professor, investigates the new techniques in Meaning in Elementary School Mathematics.

Mrs. Sylvia E. Bowen, Assistant Professor, pauses to answer question of a student in a geometry class.

Mr. Walter W. Leftwich, Assistant Professor, observes, Harry Hampton, Wilbur Steele, Clarence McNeal record the findings of Paul Courts.



Mr. W. Vergil Winters, Professor, explains a difficult problem to students in physics laboratory class.

Miss Althea V. Morton, Assistant Professor, listens to conversations with students in the language laboratory.

Mr. Julius C. Stevens, Visiting Instructor, explains some fundamentals of German to his class.

To assure symmetry in the student's development, the Fine Arts Department offers knowledge and training in the areas of music, art, and speech. These areas are of professional importance for some; for others, they offer that extra dimension to give meaning and zest to life.

Dr. Coleridge A. Braithwaite, Professor and Head of the Department of Fine Arts, is pictured in his office transcribing some musical notes.

Mr. James Thompson Jr., Instructor, assists Miss Barbara Kindell with her piano lesson.

Mrs. Myra M. Thomas, Instructor, lectures to a class in music.

Mr. Phillip J. Hampton, Assistant Professor, pauses after doing some work on a portrait.

Mr. Samuel A. Gill, Instructor, and student Paul Johnson figure out musical scales before class.

Mrs. Farnese Lumpkin, Assistant Professor, is pictured molding an object out of clay.

A large segment of SSC students are active in the preparation for careers in business administration. Various areas—secretarial, management, accounting, civil service, Peace Corps, sales, public relations, and advertising are open to study and constant practice.

Dr. Howard S. Anderson, Professor and Head of the Department of Business Administration, reads correspondence from the morning mail.

Mr. Johnny Campbell Jr., Instructor, pictured during research for an Economics class.

Mrs. Mildred Glover, Instructor, manipulates some statistical problems at her desk.

Those studies dealing with people as they govern themselves or live in communities and with the long thread of their history—these social sciences help us to understand our role in the society of which we are a part.

Dr. E. J. Dean, Professor and Head of the Department of Social Science, lectures to a class in History.

Dr. E. K. Williams, Professor, Coordinator of General Education and Summer School Director, pictured in his office.

Dr. J. L. Gordon, Professor, assists Miss Dorothy Dorsey in adjusting her class hours.

Assistant Professor Blanton E. Black looks on attentively as Miss Dorothy Inman makes a point about Africa in a Negro History class.

Associate Professor Wilbur C. McAfee, pictured in his office preparing a general debate for a class in History 300.

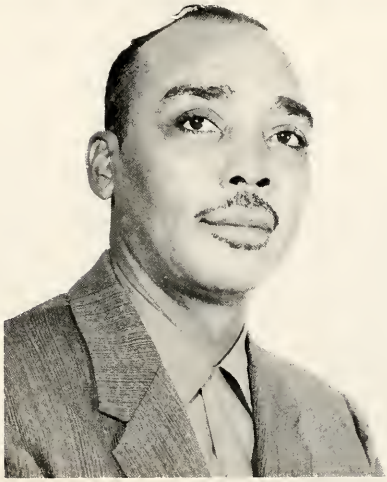
Mr. William E. Griffin, Assistant Professor, pauses for the photographer during his early morning schedule.

Mr. Whittington B. Johnson, Assistant Professor, lectures to his class in Psychology.

Offering a chance for every student to take part in wholesome athletics, physical education encompasses varsity squads, recreational games, intramural contests, modern dance, and those endeavors aimed toward the full development of a well-rounded personality.

Dr. Raymond W. Hopson, Chairman and Associate Professor, lectures to his anatomy class on the muscles of the arm.

Mrs. Ella W. Fisher, Assistant Professor, watches as students prepare to play a game.

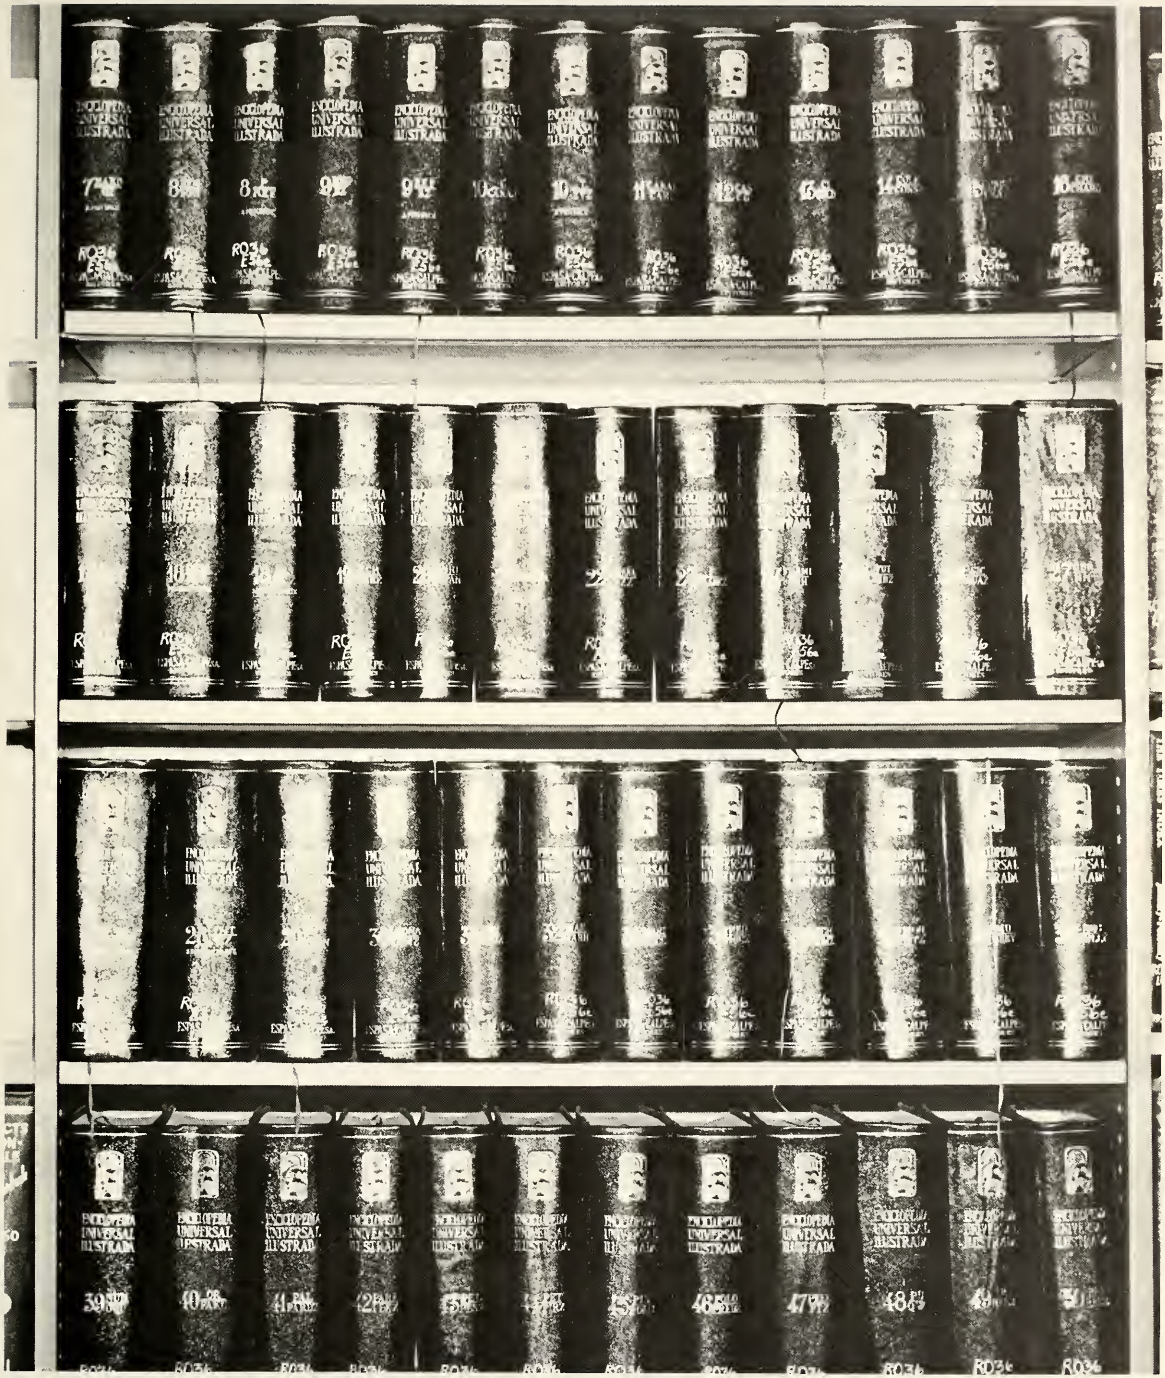


Mr. Albert E. Frazier, Assistant Professor and Basketball Coach.

Former Basketball Star, Ira Jackson confers with Assistant Professor Theodore A. Wright, Sr.

A group of students attentively view a demonstration as Assistant Professor of Physical Education, Mrs. Geraldine H. Abernathy explains techniques used in the game.

Physical fitness is being stressed as Assistant Professor Richard K. Washington lectures to a class in Health Education.



Small departments in our faculty are those of foreign language and home economics. Ever increasing is the department of Elementary and Secondary Education. Though varied in size, these departments are of vital importance to many students. The department of Education provides cultural and professional opportunities for scores in the student body.

Dr. Calvin L. Kiah, Division Chairman and Professor, stresses a point to one of his classes in curriculum and teaching.

Mr. Arthur Dwight, Principal of the laboratory high school, Sol C. Johnson, is captured by photographer in a moment of reflection.

Miss Velma V. Watters, Assistant Professor, takes time at the close of a busy day to pose for photographer.

ACTIVITIES

Swift moving days, faster
yet the whirl of events, but the vividness of the impressions they leave, the sharpness of their memories, will stay in our minds.

We were a busy lot anyway, trying to fit research papers, conference games, frat parties, labs and a part-time job into a full-time life. But it can be done, for most of us did it. And it was happy, horrible, hectic.

ORGANIZATIONS

Almost immediately after enrollment, students at Savannah State College begin into spheres of interests. Athletes join athletes, singers form choirs, and engineers find other engineers. Quickly civic-minded students discover the Student Forum and instrumentalists try out for bands and actors for roles. The yearbook staff is usually well into another year's work, and happily accepts recruits.

Clubs and organizations offer a wide range of interest to students who wish to avail themselves of the opportunities for growth and social contacts. Many of course, take active part in the service and programs of more than one organization and are valuable contributors to the busy life centered on SSC campus.

Fraternity

In 1911, three young men, Edgar A. Love, Oscar J. Cooper, and Frank Coleman, conceived the idea of founding a Negro National College Fraternity. The young men discussed the matter many times, and as a result concluded that they should have some guidance. They contacted Professor Just and he consented at once, having a keen appreciation for the problems of youth.

On November 17, 1911, the Omega Psi Phi was born. The four Cardinal principles agreed upon were SCHOLARSHIP, MANHOOD, PERSEVERANCE, AND UPLIFT.

Alpha Gamma Chapter was established in 1949. Ever since that time the members have strived to uphold the standards set by the predecessors.

Among the many Activities outstanding of the chapter are the Annual Achievement Week Program, the Christmas Seals Campaign, and tutoring services for the Lampodas Club. The Chapter also sponsored social activities which include smokers, rush parties, dances and their annual Mardi Gras.

The motto, "Friendship is essential to the soul," was symbolized by the words Omega Psi Phi, the equivalent words of the motto in Greek.

On October 28, 1914, the laying of the foundation was formally completed when the Omega Psi Phi, Fraternity was incorporated by the United States Congress.

From that one undergraduate chapter (Alpha Chapter) the Omega Psi Phi Fraternity has a roster of 270 chapters. From a membership of three in 1911, Omega has a membership of more than 50,000.

Every state in the Union has some sons of Omega to carry her ideas. There are Omega Men abroad also.

Sorority

Delta Sigma Theta is a national Greek letter organization, having 275 chapters located in 37 states, including Alaska, and also in the Republics of Haiti and Liberia.

Delta Sigma Theta was founded at Howard University in Washington, D. C. on January 13, 1913, by a group of 22 undergraduate women who, in February 18, 1913, succeeded and secured a certificate of Incorporation for the infant sorority.

The stated purpose of the founders was to establish a society to promote high cultural, intellectual, and moral standards among its members, for its own benefit and for that of the larger society in which it existed.

KAPPA ALPHA PSI

Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity was founded January 5, 1911 at Indiana University, being incorporated by the state of Indiana on April 15, 1911. It was first known as Kappa Alpha Nu Fraternity. In 1914 the name was changed to Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity. The efforts of three men, Elder W. Diggs, Byron K. Armstrong, and John M. Lee, were outstanding in the early development of the fraternity.

SIGMA GAMMA RHO SORORITY

Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority, Incorporated, was organized on November 12, 1922, in Indianapolis, Indiana by Mary Lou Gardner and six other school teachers. The sorority became an incorporated National Collegiate Sorority on December 30, 1929, when a charter was granted by Alpha Chapter at Butler University, Indianapolis, Indiana.

At present there are 59 campus chapters—and 82 Alumni Chapters—one of which is located at the University of Liberia, Monrouia.

Fifteen years and three months ago Soror Fannie P. Jenkins, the Southeastern Regional Director, Julia Jones, Edna Ligon, Rose Lotson, Mattie Roberts and Christine Wright brought forth on this campus a new sorority, conceived in education, and dedicated to the proposition that all sisters are united as equal.

During this school term the sorority has been working diligently on various activities on and off campus. The sorority is a member of the Friends of the Library and the NAACP.

The sorority particularly stresses "finer womanhood, greater service and greater progress."

Fraternity

More than fifty-five years ago at Cornell University, Ithaca, New York, one of the most important meetings in Negro history was taking place. Seven valiant Negro students, drawn together by their mutual feeling for the need of an organization which would bind Negro students together, organized Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, the first Negro Greek-Letter organization.

The park shown in the picture was built by the chapter and dedicated to the two deceased chartered brothers, Toland J. Collier and Elijah J. Lamarr on April 28, 1959, the tenth anniversary of the chapter.

Sorority

On January 16, 1908, a young woman named Ethel Hedgeman envisioned an idea that has now become the pride of many college young women. Ethel Hedgeman, a junior at Howard University, loved her people and wanted to do something to raise their standards. In her room in Minor Hall Ethel Hedgeman, Lucy Slowe, Beulah Burke, Margaret Hagg, Marjorie Hill, Marie Woolfold, Anna Brown, and Lavinia Norman met to draw up plans for the organization. Lucy Stowe was elected Basileus.

From so small a nucleus Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority has grown to more than 1,011 graduate Chapters and 110 undergraduate chapters throughout the United States and Liberia.

The five founders, all of whom are still living, are Arizona Cleaver Stemons, Viola Tyler Goings, Pearl Neal, Fannie Pettie Walls (of Savannah) and Myrtle Tyler Faithful. Soror Stemons has the honor of being the first president of the organization.

The name of the official organ of the sorority is the Archon. The Pledge Club is known as the Archonian Club. The Archonian Club is composed of young women who are or have matriculated in Accredited Colleges and who are aspiring to membership in the sorority.

Rho Beta Chapter participates as far as possible in all of the national programs of the sorority. Its contributions to the control and prevention of juvenile delinquency is an annual party at Thanksgiving time for the children of the Greenbriar Children's Center. The sorority assists the local graduate chapter with its city-wide story hour program during Finer Womanhood Week. On campus the sorority has an annual assembly program on which an award is presented to the freshman girl with the highest average for the fall quarter.
